- WHERE THE NEED IS THE GREATEST. By checking this box, you will ensure that the Foundation for the Mid South has the support it needs to operate all of its programs that help strengthen communities, improve education, and nurture the Mid South's families and children.
- THE DELTA FUND. Your contribution to the Delta Fund will go into a permanently endowed fund to support nonprofit and faith-based organizations in the Delta region of Arkansas, Louisiana, and Mississippi that are working to eliminate the cycle of poverty.
- MID SOUTH AFRICAN AMERICAN PHILANTHROPY FUND. Established on the heels of the successful regional Mid South Regional Conference on Black Philanthropy in Baton Rouge, your contribution to this Fund will help promote Black philanthropy to African American donors through donor education materials, conferences, and awareness campaigns.
- THE RAISED UP RIGHT FUND. The Raised Up Right Fund was created by the Foundation and the Up South Expatriates and Friends Network of Chicago, Illinois to help provide families and children throughout the Mid South the tools and resources to improve the outlook for the region's underserved children. The Fund makes grants to support the development and expansion of early childhood services, increase homeownership for families, improve k-12 education, and raise awareness and promote advocacy for children to the general public and the governments of Arkansas, Louisiana, and Mississippi.
