CRITERIA:

Nominations for the Mary Moody Finer Woman Award are now being accepted for any woman in ministry leadership residing in Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi or Tennessee. This virtuous woman must embody the grace, servant leadership, resilience, compassion, faith and commitment to serving her church and community. The nominee should be a bridge builder committed to social justice and nurturing the potential in others. Awards will be presented at the keynote luncheon (noon) on Friday, September 14, Baton Rouge, LA in conjunction with the 4th Mid South Gathering of Women in Ministry Leadership.

Please use this form to submit a nomination. The nomination should be limited to this form and one optional attached 8.5 x 11 single spaced Word document. Note that this form must also be signed by the person being nominated. Self nominations are not permitted. Those not following these guidelines will be disqualified. Winners will be notified by September 1, 2007.

SELECTION:

A regional advisory board of ministry, business and community leaders will select the award recipient. The nomination form should point to the uniqueness of the nominee and her extraordinary character and life.

What makes this nominee stand out as a compassionate visionary leader and a finer woman?

How has this nominee demonstrated extraordinary community service, bridge-building and a commitment to mentoring and building other leaders?

Talk about how she demonstrates grace, sacrifice and resilience?
